DENIES KILLING HER HUSBAND

Mrs. Neil Tells of Events Leading Up to Death.

Woman Will Be Extradited and Tried in Connecticut—Finds Herself Innocently a Bigamist.

New York, Dec. 17.—Mrs. Catherine Neil, who was arrested in this city Saturday night, following the mysterious death of her husband in a Greenwich (Conn.) hotel, was remanded to the Tombs this morning by Magistrate Breen, when her case came up in the Tombs Police Court. She is held without bail pending the arrival of extradition papers and will be arraigned in the Police Court again Wednesday morning.

According to Mrs. Neil's story, Neil had been drinking heavily and had sustained the fatal injury by falling.
"It is absolutely untrue that I killed my husband," said Mrs. Neil in court, "I loved Joe dearly and would not have done anything to hurt him for the world. While drunk he fell on his face and it killed him. It is true that I own a nail file, but it is absurd to say that I killed him with it. Why, he was so big and strong he could have squeezed the life out of me with one hand. Joe was a giant and you see how big I am."

He said Mrs. Neil's statements are true, she is guilty of bigamy. According to her story she was married in 1897 to a policeman named William Finley, now retired. After the birth of a child they separated. For five years she said she was under the impression that Finley was dead, and believing it not unlawful, she married Neil last September at the Riverside Baptist Church, Ninety-second street and Amsterdam avenue.

Mrs. Neil said that her husband treated her brutally and beat her.
Miss O'Brien, matron of the prison ward at Bellevue Hospital, said that she has seldom seen a woman so badly beaten up. A club must have been used to inflict such injuries she thought.

Columbia, Mo., Dec. 17.—Prof. C. W. Hetherington, director of athletics of Missouri University, it was learned today, has taken the initiative in a movement to form an association of Western universities for the governing of college athletics.

He has issued a call for a meeting between representatives of Kansas, Nebraska, Washington, of St. Louis, St. Louis, Oklahoma, Arkansas, and Texas universities, with possibly others, to discuss the proposal.
No date has been fixed, but it is proposed to hold the meeting in Kansas City soon after the holidays.

Pitcher Fraser Now a Cub.
Cincinnati, Ohio, Dec. 17.—Garry Herrmann announced today that he had sold Chick Fraser to the Chicago Cubs and Delehanty to the St. Louis Browns. Fraser was with Boston in 1904, and with Philadelphia in 1905. Delehanty, a place which neither O'Brien nor Hartzel could fill last season, and in the event that he does not make good he will be used in the outfield, forming an outer garden composed of Stone, Hemphill, and Delehanty.

Envoy Noses Out James Reddick at a Mile and a Sixteenth—Enthusiastic Daily Wins His First Race of the Season in New Orleans with Gentian—Track Was Sloppy.

New Orleans, Dec. 17.—It remained until today for the first breath of suspicion to be cast against the racing at City Park this season. It leaked out today from an unofficial source that the stewards were not satisfied with Jockey McClure's effort on the horse Gould in the steeplechase event Saturday. After the steeplechase of 10-123, both Jockey McClure and Trainer Fox were summoned into the private room occupied by the judges, where a long conversation took place. Jockey McClure, who is said to have handled his mount for a bookmaker, is reported to have stated to an intimate friend that Judge Trevelyan said he would recommend that his license be revoked at the next meeting of the American Turf Association.

The continued rain of last night and this morning left the course at City Park a sea of mud. The best race of the year came out of the purse offered at a mile and a half furlong. James Reddick and Envoy, which ruled favorite and second choice, respectively, throughout the betting made it an interesting affair, by finishing noses apart. James Reddick was a 2 to 1 favorite, but Envoy won.

"Father Bill" Daly won his first race of the meeting with Gentian in the opening event at six furlongs. Gentian was a 15 to 1 choice, and the favorite, and led all the way. Fonsolca, the even money favorite in the mile and one-quarter, also led from start to finish. Dargh came to life rather suddenly, winning the event.
